

Hello Dear Friend,

You've been gifted my new book, Everyday Radiance! I am thrilled to share it with you. This book is a true labor of love. I created it based on the Moon Notes I've been sharing on Instagram over the last 5 years. I've created 30 days of inspiration for each astrological season. It's definitely a book for your bedside table or backpack or for the corner of your desk. It's meant to be interacted with on a daily basis!

It officially comes out on January 31st. I am so excited for you to receive it. Thank you so much for your support!

Big Love,

Heidi Rose Robbins
